

Apparel and Textile Production II + II Honors

Career Cluster: Arts, AV Technology & Communications

Prerequisite: Apparel I

Course: FA322X0

Student Benefits

Students will be able to have a real life understanding of the current industry, careers and greatly increase their sewing skills. The school-based enterprise or charity project they choose promotes teamwork, financial skills and work-based experience in the apparel and textile industry.

Apparel II Honors students have the same curriculum in addition to a detailed portfolio project and presentation due at the end of the semester. Apparel II Honors are for students with a strong work and study ethic and valuable for those who may desire to further their education and career in the Apparel and Textile Industry.

Course Description

Apparel and Textile Production II uses the skills and knowledge from Apparel I and focuses on the marketing and apparel production side of the industry. The students will have an opportunity to have a school-based enterprise or make a product for charity to donate.

In this apparel course students are introduced to design, textiles and apparel engineering. Emphasis is placed on students applying these design and engineering skills to create and produce apparel products. Art, literacy, mathematics, and science are reinforced.

Course Themes

- The Design Process and Pattern Making
- Advanced Apparel Construction Techniques
- Printing and Fabric Dyeing methods / Inkodye project
- Methods of Apparel Manufacturing and Production / Industry Careers
- Apparel Marketing/ School-Based Enterprise
- Societal/ Environmental/ Global Issues in the Apparel Industry
- Labels Classifications and Types/ Garment Regulations
- Final Garment construction of Students Choice (within individual student's ability)

Materials Needed

- Students main purchase will be material for their final garment which varies depending on their pattern. Most fabric for this purchase is $25 or under. Students are always welcome to use existing class fabric while it lasts or purchase their own.
- Projects include: A lined tote bag, "Surgi dolls" (service project), Wallet, Embroidery and more. Mrs. Winick is always open to suggestions for new projects that are within the curriculum guidelines.